

HR Now support all aspects of HR and Talent Management

Since 2009, HR Now has provided interim, ad-hoc, project or fully outsourced HR functions. We look after your HR issues regardless, of what they may be, improving your organisations effectiveness and productivity throughout the entire employee lifecycle – we are your ‘one-stop-shop’ for all things HR.

We support your business in diverse ways, aligned to your business strategies.

- Talent Acquisition – building your future workforce by attracting, retaining and developing the very best talent, utilising the best routes of attraction and assessment to support your resourcing strategy
- Employee Reward – designing compelling performance focused reward propositions with the strategies and data points to support decisions
- Talent Management – increasing the economic potential of every individual, from onboarding and induction through talent and performance management; training analysis and delivery and succession planning
- Employee Engagement – through leadership, inspiring a culture of commitment and diverse collaboration, values and etiquette
- Employee Relations – managing difficult conversations and dispute management with dignity and integrity supported by a resilient ‘tool-kit’ of policies and procedures; with traditional or digital Handbooks; expert advice; tribunal representation and commercial legal protection (CLP) insurance.
- Payroll Services – outsourced payroll and reporting, (cyber essentials certified)

Following an initial free HR health-check Discovery, we sit down together and work through our Design and Delivery methodology that will align our support to your business in a cost- efficient way.
